

Internal Quality Assurance Cell (IQAC) Proposals:

1. High Configuration Computers for the Principal's desk, Vice-principal, teaching staffs and library.
2. Three LCD Projectors: one for the conference room, and the other two would be used as a teaching aid separately for both arts and science.
3. Xerox machine to help the students with their study materials. Charges would be charged accordingly. Any lab assistant from the physics department can be in charged to take care of the xerox revenue.
4. One DSLR camera for college use. Most importantly to collect data, evidences and proofs of all the activities that will be held.
5. Additional fund of Rs.2 lakhs to be invested on the books for library. Library must be provided with two national newspaper (Times of India, Hindu) and two national journals. And also to procure encyclopedias for social sciences and humanities.
6. Lecturers' lounge to be arranged to cubicle spaces or department wise.
7. Two codeless microphones for teaching at large classrooms, especially when the classroom comprise of more than 120 students.
8. The college must establish a Conference Hall, Auditorium and Cafeteria.
9. To introduce Students' council at the college headed by the Principal and Vice –principal.
10. To form an Alumni association supervised by the Vice-principal
11. Newsletter would be published twice in a year i.e. in March and September.
12. To publish a college magazine and journal annually
13. Teachers must be allowed to attend seminars and refresher courses.
14. Field trips or educational trips for the students.

15. College must be encouraged to organize seminars on national and state level and also to participate at national and state level.
16. College to organize Freshers day and valediction programmes for the students.